FILE No. 65-70
SERIAL No. 1

Before the Govt of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore

Muddumaiaraika,
son of Ramanaika, Honnur village,
Yelandur taluk — Petitioner

The petitioner abovenamed begs to state as follows:-

1. That he is a resident of Honnur village, Yelandur taluk and that on the occasion of his daughter's marriage he made arrangements to take the bridal pair in procession round the streets of his village.

2. That the Amildar of Yelandur declined to grant the petitioner license to go in procession in certain streets in the village.

3. That thereupon the petitioner applied to the Deputy Commissioner and District Magistrate, Mysore, who was pleased to grant the license prayed for but at the same time directed that the police may be instructed to lay down the route to be observed by the procession so as not to cause any likely disturbance.

4. The petitioner submits that the

was not justified Deputy Commissioner in directing the police to lay down the route in this is unnecessarily restricts the right which a citizen possesses to pass along the public highways in any manner and with any number of attendants he chooses, provided no injury is done to others and provided the procession is conducted in a peaceful and orderly manner

5. The petitioner further submits that § 45 of the Mysore Police Regulation under which the Deputy Commissioner has passed the order under appeal does not reserve power to him to restrict or lay down any route through which and through which alone a procession should pass. The police have ample powers themselves given to them under the Regulation & Rules for Controlling and directing the Conduct of processions.

6. The petitioner undertakes to Conduct the procession in quite a peaceful manner and most respectfully prays that he may be left to choose his own route for the procession in his village without any interference from the police and the limitations sought to be imposed by the License as above by the Deputy Commissioner may be removed.
A certified copy of the Deputy Commissioner's order is hereto annexed for Kind reference.
